Description

Master the essentials of Project Management, bridging theoretical concepts with hands-on techniques to drive projects to successful completion. Elevate your project management prowess by adeptly engaging stakeholders and harmonizing diverse processes within a standardized framework across project lifecycles. This immersive course empowers you to navigate the intricacies of project management with real-world examples and industry-relevant methodologies, ensuring you're equipped to tackle modern challenges head-on. The course is instructed by seasoned industry professionals with decades of hands-on experience whose wealth of expertise will enrich your learning journey, incorporating the latest trends such as Agile considerations and AI impacts. Moreover, this course is designed to align with the PMP® Exam curriculum prescribed by PMI®, providing you with the requisite 35 Educational Credits essential for both aspiring and seasoned project managers to pursue or maintain their PMP® certification.

Objectives

During this course, you will:

- Describe the fundamental framework of project management, as defined by PMI's 49-processes.
- Identify the 5 process groups in project management: Initiating, Planning, Executing, Monitoring & Controlling, and Closing.
- Describe the 10 project knowledge areas, recognizing the sequential, iterative, and overlapping nature of project processes, involving integration, schedule, scope, schedule, cost, quality, resources, communications, risk, procurement, and stakeholder.
- Understand the difference between project, program, and portfolio management, and the roles and responsibilities of a project, program, and portfolio manager.
- Perform the essential duties of a project manager in integrating project activities, and obtain effective results throughout the life cycle of the project.
- Apply tools and techniques to analyze and drive project activities with the main goal of achieving project objectives within scope, schedule, budget, and with the highest quality standards.
- Describe predictive and adaptive life cycles and understand when to use them.
- Understand how to apply AI in project management.
- Develop the project work breakdown structure (WBS) using the project charter and scope statement.
- Identify project stakeholders and keep them engaged throughout the project as foundational essentials for the success of any project.
- Appreciate the necessity of a well-organized, robust, and effective project management system.

Outcomes

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

- Utilize the fundamental framework of project management to perform the analytical and leadership duties as a project manager, adhering to PMI's 49 processes and PMI's Code of Ethics and Conduct.
- Use a systematic approach of the five process groups of initiating, Planning, Executing, Monitoring & Controlling, and Closing to deliver work and measure performance throughout the life cycle of the project.
- Recognize the key concepts involved with the most important project task of integration, as well as realize the key processes involved with project scope management and project stakeholders' engagement.

- Define the 10 knowledge areas fundamental to managing projects and describe their objectives, inputs, tools, techniques, and outputs.
- Recognize the relationship and linkage among the 10 knowledge areas: integration, schedule, scope, schedule, cost, quality, resources, communications, risk, procurement, and stakeholder.
- Distinguish between the roles and responsibilities of a project, program, and portfolio manager, along with their respective domains.
- Utilize appropriate methodologies to analyze project progress and ensure alignment with objectives, focusing on scope, schedule, budget, and quality.
- Understand the characteristics and applications of both predictive and adaptive project life cycles, and know when to utilize each approach based on project requirements.
- Understand the significance of formal change-request systems in project integration and their impact on project management processes.
- Gain insight into the application of AI techniques and tools in project management to improve efficiency, decision-making, and project outcomes.

Materials

All materials such as templates, case studies, and examples will be provided within the weekly Modules. You will be prompted to download the necessary materials as you progress through the course.

Required Resource

Process Groups: A Practice Guide by PMI®; ISBN-10 1628257830; ISBN-13: 978-1628257830

This book will be used as a reference only throughout the four core courses within the certificate, and is the most recent publication by PMI® to supplement the PMBOK Guide, 7th Edition.

✱ Course Policies

Instructor Expectations

Simply be yourself. Everyone brings different experiences to this course. Each of you will have different backgrounds, needs, expectations and concerns. I highly recommend that you share your experiences with each other. It is through our unique stories that we will learn the concepts together.

As your instructor, it will be easier for me to meet your needs if you communicate them directly and sincerely. Life happens, and I understand that work and family emergencies occur that may prohibit you from submitting work on time. Please notify me IN ADVANCE of the deadline if an assignment will be submitted late, and note that all work must be submitted by the last day of class.

I encourage you to use this course as an opportunity to develop a network of professional relationships. Project management is team-based, so this course will provide an opportunity to work as a team on a project. I hope you enjoy this and learn about how to work together and communicate effectively.

Course Expectations

This course is designed to be in classroom in an interactive style via Canvas. You may log in at any time of the day to fit your life schedule; however, you are expected to participate in the course on a weekly basis and complete all readings and submit activities as assigned on a weekly basis.

- Each week, you are expected to read the Lecture Slides and watch the Lecture Videos that are available in the course modules. covering theoretical background and practical applications.
- Pacing your work earlier in the week will give you more time for completing the weekly Discussions and Quizzes.

To plan your study time, it is estimated that you will spend about 9 hours per week reading, researching, engaging in course discussion activities, and completing assignments. Depending on the extent of your academic preparation and experience with the topics, the amount of study time needed may vary considerably.

I also recommend that you leverage online resources via searches such as ChatGPT, Gemini (Bard), Bing, Google, Wiki, YouTube, or other and read the reviews and discussions by industry experts and practitioners. I highly encourage you to share new ideas, research, articles, revelations, and video links with your classmates in the online Discussions.

Weekly Discussion

The discussion questions are designed to encourage critical thinking, collaboration, and engagement with course topics, fostering deeper understanding and exploration of applications from the different perspectives. Through this collaborative forum, you will also learn from each other, promoting networking, and building relationships with each other.

The Discussion assignment comprises of two components:

1) Posting your own answer. Your posts should:

- Be professional.
- Feature good writing, correct spelling, and correct mechanics.
- Incorporate reflections, opinions, and pertinent information from topics that you've read.
- Provide examples from your life and work experience.
- Include objective and critical analysis of what you read or experienced, or a short synopsis of a chapter or a related assignment from another course.
- Share resources with others during the course.

2) Posting reply to at least two other classmates' posts. Your responses should:

- Agree and disagree as long as they apply to the topic and are respectful.
- Challenge your classmates' postings, but done in the spirit of being helpful and constructive.
- Include more than phrases such as "I agree with that" or "Interesting comment."
- If a classmate's post has two replies, find another classmate whose post has less than two replies. That way, we can increase the overall communication for the discussion.

Grades:

- 5 points for your own input
- 5 points for your response to at least 2 classmates' posts
- A total of 10 points for each week
- All Discussion assignments together will count for 20% of your final grade
- All postings will be reviewed and scored according to the rubric. Grading will be based on both the quality of your own input to the posted questions, your response to classmates, and the timeliness of your input.
- I will review and score within 7 days of the due date.
- If you do not understand the weekly Discussion questions, please email me immediately so that I can explain the assignment. This is much better than turning in a discussion that is not done correctly and losing points.

Due Date:

- This is a weekly assignment due by the end of of the day before our class day.
- Your initial posts, responding to my discussion questions, are due each week by Friday at 11:59 pm (PT).
- Your response to at least two of your classmates' posts are due each week by Tuesday at 11:59 pm (PT).

Late Submission Penalty:

- 1 point deduction for each week that you delay your submission up to a maximum of 3 weeks.
- After 3 weeks, I will not accept any input, and will score zero for the missing week.
- The final late submission for any Discussion is the last day of the course.
- There is no extension to the work beyond the last day of the course.

Weekly Quizzes

Quizzes are assigned to reinforce learning of the weekly concepts and to provide you with a supplemental learning opportunity. The questions in the weekly quizzes are drawn from, but not limited to, the weekly lecture topics. While taking the quiz, in rare instances, you might notice some questions that are not from the weekly lecture topics. By presenting you with additional topics through these quiz questions, the goal is to provide you with comprehensive curriculum coverage of concepts and their applications. If you encounter a particular question that you may need help with, please do not hesitate to bring it up for clarification.

Grades:

- 1 point for each question within a quiz
- Total number of questions within a quiz varies from week to week
- All the Quiz assignments together will count for 20% of your final grade
- You can take the quizzes with no time limit restrictions from start to finish, and can also retake them multiple times to improve your grade and reinforce your learning through repetition.
- If you do not understand any question, please email me immediately so that I can explain the concept.

Due Date:

- This is a weekly assignment (except for weeks five and eleven) due on Tuesday at 11:59 PM.

Late Submission Penalty:

- There is no penalty in completing your quizzes past the due date. However, I highly urge you to keep up your pace in the course and complete your quizzes on a weekly basis.
- The final late submission date for all quizzes is the last day of the course.
- There is no extension to the work beyond the last day of the course.

Midterm and Final Exam

The Midterm and Final exams are comprehensive based on the knowledge areas covered within this course and are set up in multiple choice quiz format similar to the weekly quizzes.

- Midterm will cover concepts from weeks one to five.
- Final Exam will cover concepts from weeks six to eleven.

Grades:

- 1 point for each question
- The Midterm will count for 20% of your final grade
- The Final Exam will count for 20% of your final grade
- You can take these quizzes with no time limit restrictions from start to finish, and can also retake them multiple times to improve your grade and reinforce your learning through repetition.

- If you do not understand any question, please email me immediately so that I can explain the concept.

Due Date:

- Midterm due by 11:59 PM, Pacific Time (US) on 07/30/24.
- Final Exam due by 11:59 PM, Pacific Time (US) on 09/03/24.

Late Submission Penalty:

- There is no penalty in completing these assignments past the due date. However, I highly urge you to keep up your pace in the course and complete your Midterm by end of week six.
- The ultimate late submission for both the Midterm and Final Exam quizzes is the last day of the course.
- There is no extension to the work beyond the last day of the course.

Final Presentation

This is a group assignment and I will divide you into teams at the beginning of the course. This assignments comprises of two components:

1. Live presentation as a group to the class in-person within classroom sections. We will schedule the time-slots for the groups to present in a sequence closer to the due date.

2. Submission of your file into the assignment link.

This assignment is designed to help you practice skills that are essential to becoming a successful project manager. Select any topic that you learned from the course and create a 15-20 slide presentation using PowerPoint, Prezzie, or another format. The presentation file must be submitted through the assignment link prior to the start of class on 09/03/24. Each presentation should be approximately 20 minutes in length.

Your presentation must:

- Demonstrate the skills you learned in this course.
- Include weekly templates provided within the lecture notes.
- Include conceptual materials and application to a real-world situation.
- Be professional. Assume that you are preparing it for your most important customer or the highest-level executive within your organization.
- Be creative.

Once submitted, you will be able to view your classmates' presentations in order to gain from their expertise and insights and benchmark against best practices.

Grades:

- 20 points
- This will count for 20% of your final grade

- All postings will be reviewed and scored according to the rubric. Grading will be based on both the quality of your own input towards the project, and the timeliness of your input.

Due Date:

- This is a final assignment due by the end of the course.
  - Submit your file into Canvas anytime before 09/03/24.
  - Deadline is on Tuesday, 11:59 PM on 09/03/24.
- The presentations will take place during the last class on 09/03/24 in classroom.

Late Submission Penalty:

- There is no extension for this assignment. If you do not submit within the last week of the course, i.e. week eleven, you will score zero for this assignment.
- There is no extension to the work beyond the last day of the course.

🏛 Institutional Policies

Student Conduct

Students are subject to disciplinary action for several types of misconduct or attempted misconduct, including but not limited to academic dishonesty, such as cheating, multiple submission, plagiarism, or knowingly furnishing false information to the University; or behavioral misconduct, such as theft or misuse of the intellectual property of others, harassment, or disruption of the learning environment.

All published and unpublished material, whether in manuscript, printed or electronic form, is covered under this definition and includes the use of material generated wholly or in part through the use of artificial intelligence (except when the use of AI has received prior authorization for assessment as a reasonable accommodation for a student's disability, or when the use of AI is a specified part of the coursework, e.g. data science or user experience). Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the Student Rights & Responsibilities Policy (https://www.uclaextension.edu/student-services/rights-and-responsibilities) and to report concerns.

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, UCLA Extension provides appropriate accommodations and support services to qualified applicants and students with disabilities. These include, but are not limited to, auxiliary aids/services such as sign language interpreters, assistive listening devices for hearing-impaired individuals, extended time for and proctoring of exams, and registration assistance. Accommodations and types of support services vary and are specifically designed to meet the disability-related needs of each student based on current, verifiable medical documentation. Arrangements for auxiliary aids/services are available only through UCLA Extension's Service for Students with Disabilities Office at (310) 825-7851 or by email at ODS@uclaextension.edu. For complete information, please visit Accessibility and Disability Services (https://www.uclaextension.edu/enrollment-and-support/accessibility-and-disability-services).

Incompletes

The interim grade Incomplete (I) may be approved for a student who has completed the majority of the course requirements, with passing quality (grade C or higher), but is unable to complete a small portion of the coursework by the course end date for good cause. For courses in which an Incomplete may be allowed, approval by the instructor of record and the academic program director is required. The Incomplete grade is not an option for courses that do not bear credit, such as 700, 800, or 900-level courses.

- It is the student's responsibility to petition for an Incomplete by emailing the appropriate academic program department (https://www.uclaextension.edu/contact-ucla-extension) at least one week before the end of the course. The Program Department will initiate the petition process once the email is received.
- The student, the instructor, the CE/Program Director, and the program staff must complete the petition prior to the final course meeting or before the quarter end date (https://www.uclaextension.edu/calendar). This process can take up to one week to complete.
- The instructor will approve or deny the request. The instructor will provide details on what the student needs to accomplish in order to complete the course, as well as a due date for submitting completed work. The due date cannot exceed the end of the ensuing quarter (https://www.uclaextension.edu/calendar) when a final grade must be reported or the Incomplete lapses to the grade "F," "NP," or "U." Visit UCLA Extension Grading Scale (https://www.uclaextension.edu/transcripts-credits-grades/grading-scale) for more information.

An Incomplete allows the student to complete only work that is outstanding and does not allow prior completed work to be retaken or resubmitted.

All Grades are Final

No change of grade may be made by anyone other than the instructor, and then, only to correct clerical errors. No term grade except Incomplete may be revised by re-examination. The correction of a clerical error may be authorized only by the instructor of record communicating directly with personnel of Student and Alumni Services.

Sexual Harassment

The University of California is committed to creating and maintaining a community where all individuals who participate in University programs and activities can work and learn together in an atmosphere free of harassment, exploitation, or intimidation. Every member of the community should be aware that the University prohibits sexual harassment and sexual violence, and that such behavior violates both law and University policy. The University will respond promptly and effectively to reports of sexual harassment and sexual violence, and will take appropriate action to prevent, to correct, and when necessary, to discipline behavior that violates our policy.

All Extension students and instructors who believe they have been sexually harassed are encouraged to contact the Department of Student and Alumni Services for complaint resolution: UCLA Extension, 1145 Gayley Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90024; Voice/TTY: (310) 825-7031. For more information, please view the University's full Policy on Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence (https://policy.ucop.edu/doc/4000385/SVSH).

Additional Items

Protecting Privacy and Data During Live Instruction

Live meeting sessions for this class, when applicable, are being conducted over Zoom. As the host, the instructor may be recording live sessions. Only the host has the ability to record meetings, no recording by other means is permitted. Recorded sessions will be posted in the Videos area of this class unless otherwise notified. Due to privacy, recordings are not available for download and are only accessible via Canvas for the duration of the class. If you have privacy concerns and do not wish to appear in the recording, do not turn on your video and/or audio. If you also prefer to use a pseudonym instead of your name, please let the instructor know what name you will be using so that the instructor knows who you are during the session. To rename yourself during a Zoom meeting, click on Participants, click on your name, click on More, click on Rename. If you would like to ask a question, you may do so privately through the Zoom chat by addressing your chat question to the instructor only (and not to ""everyone""). Additionally, chat may be used and moderated for live questions, and saving of chats is enabled. If you have questions or concerns about this, please contact the instructor via Canvas Inbox.

Pursuant to the terms of the agreement between Zoom and UCLA Extension, the data is used solely for this purpose and Zoom is prohibited from re-disclosing this information. UCLA Extension also does not use the data for any other purpose. Recordings will be deleted when no longer necessary. However, recordings may become part of an administrative disciplinary record if misconduct occurs during a video conference.

Course and Instructor Evaluation

UCLA Extension values your feedback on course and instructor evaluations. We ask all students to take a few minutes to complete an end-of-course evaluation survey. Updates to the course and instruction are influenced by your feedback. Understanding your student experience is essential to ensure continuing excellence in the online classroom and is appreciated by your instructor and the UCLA Extension academic leadership.

Your participation in a survey is voluntary, and your responses are confidential. After instructors submit grades, they will be given an evaluation report, but this report will not contain your name.

About Your Online Course Materials

Please note the following about online course components at UCLA Extension:

- Students must have basic computer skills, including the use of word processing software, email, and the ability to use internet browsers, such as Safari, Firefox, or Chrome.
- Students are responsible for meeting the technical requirements of Canvas and familiarizing themselves with the Canvas Learning Management System.
    - What are the browser and computer requirements for Canvas? (https://community.canvaslms.com/t5/Canvas-Basics-Guide/What-are-the-browser-and-computer-requirements-for-Instructure/ta-p/66)

- Students are responsible for keeping a copy of all assignments and work submitted, and to be aware of all assignments, due dates, and course guidelines.
- Students have access to courses via Canvas for an additional 30 calendar days after the course end date listed in the syllabus (the first 14 days are full access; the rest are read-only).
- Students are encouraged to download/print content throughout the duration of the course and before the additional 30-day access ends. No further access is possible after the course becomes unavailable.

  To download all your assignment submissions in Canvas, please refer to the online support guide. (https://community.canvaslms.com/docs/DOC-10606) for more information or contact Canvas Support via the help menu within Canvas.

UCLA Extension Canvas and Learning Support

For immediate 24/7 Canvas technical support, including holidays, click on Help (located on the menu to the left) where you can call or chat live with a Canvas Support representative.

UCLA Extension Academic Technology and Learning Innovation
The UCLA Extension Learning Support staff assists both students and instructors with Canvas-related technical support, as well as general and administrative questions.

Learning Support staff is available Monday through Friday, from 8 AM to 9 PM (Pacific Time), except holidays:

- Email: atli@uclaextension.edu (mailto:atli@uclaextension.edu)

Campus Safety Escorts

For students taking classes held on the UCLA campus and in and around Westwood Village, the UCLA Police Department provides a free walking escort service every day of the year from dusk until 1 a.m. Community Service Officers (CSOs) are available to walk students, faculty, staff members and visitors to and from anywhere on campus, in Westwood Village, and in the village apartments. CSOs are uniformed students who have received special training and are employed by the UCLA Police Department. To obtain an escort, please call (310) 794-9255 and allow 15 to 20 minutes for your escort to arrive. For complete information, see UCLA Evening Escorts (https://police.ucla.edu/cso/evening-escorts).
